

To Construct New Bungalow Next Summer

Construction of a new four room bungalow on the campus south of the existing Bungalow L seemed a virtual certainty today.

Tentative arrangements have already been completed and the new building, designed as Bungalow M, is expected to be constructed during the summer so that it will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term. It will be the same size as Bungalow L, according to Director D. K. Hammond.

"Increases in enrollment," said Mr. Hammond, "make the addition absolutely necessary."

To be constructed at a cost of approximately $6704, the bungalow will contain two classrooms and two professors' offices.

Social science classes of Dr. John Brown Mason, newly appointed member of the faculty, will be held in the building. The office of Mrs. Grace Knipe, jaysee English instructor, will also be moved to the new bungalow.

Tavern Tattlers Banquet Tuesday

The Tavern Tattlers will hold their annual alumni banquet Tuesday evening, May 25, at the Green Cat cafe, Thomas H. Glenn, adviser of the club, announced today.

The program, which will begin at 7 o'clock, will feature an address by Dr. Rene Belle, professor of French literature at U. S. C. Dr. Belle has spoken to other audiences in Santa Ana.

The banquet is held each year for the purpose of bringing together the alumni and the present members to talk over their literary achievements.

About 100 alumni and members are expected to attend, according to Gordon Bishop, president of the Tattlers who will be toastmaster for the evening.

Constance Crane Wins Two Literary Awards

For a poem "The Washerwoman," Mrs. Constance Crane, local student, won a first prize of $10, at the Southern California Allied Festival of Arts held in Los Angeles, it was learned here this week.

She also won a second award of $2.50 for another poem, "Juniper."

These prizes were won in the student class of the creative writing division, according to Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, who instructs a class in that subject here.

Two Local Students Win Scholarships To Pomona College

Franklin Davis and Rand Lewis, local students, were today revealed as winners of tuition scholarships worth $150 each which were recently awarded by Pomona college.

Lewis, who is a pre-medical student, and Davis, who is a pre-law student, took competitive examinations along with students from all over the United States for the ten scholarships offered by the college.

Both Davis and Lewis plan to attend Pomona college next year.

Expect Yearbook Sales Record

Del Ano, campus yearbook, is slated to set a new sales record when 580 annuals are issued about June 8, according to Editor Tay Riggs. Last year 500 copies were issued.

"The annual will be of particular interest because it is more of a student affair this year. Most of the candid photography, which will be a feature of the book, has been done by local students," Riggs said.

Students who do not have Associated Student tickets may get their books from the business office. However, only about 20 copies will be available for non-Associated students.

Former Students Find Employment

Graduates of the local jaysee are employed in every section of the country, including Washington, D. C., a survey conducted by George B. Holmes, commerce instructor showed today.

In order to compile information on the employment status of junior college graduates, Mr. Holmes sent out 155 letters to former secretarial students asking them what type of work they are now doing.

Answers to the letters reveal that a very small number are unemployed, some are attending school, while the majority are employed in different parts of the nation.

As part of the jaysee placement bureau work, Mr. Holmes has also sent information to all business firms in Santa Ana and surrounding cities in order to familiarize business men with the placement service.

Geologists Study Animal Fossils

Animal fossils dating back 20,000 years or more were compared with modern mammal skeletons yesterday afternoon, when 25 geology students and H. A. Scott, instructor, visited the Los Angeles museum.

The museum is considered to have one of the best collections of Pleistocene fossils in the United States. The fossils were obtained from the La Brea tar pit in Los Angeles.

Elect Student Executives In June

Big guns of the approaching Associated Student political campaign were booming today as preparations were being made for one of the hottest battles in the history of the college.

Petitions for several students had been taken out this morning for various offices, according to Velma Kuechel, election chairman. Deadline for submitting the petitions to the election chairman is next Wednesday.

Primary elections will be held the following Wednesday, June 2, with the finals to be held June 4.

Each candidate for office must have his petition signed by 25 Associated Students before his name will be placed on the ballot. Each candidate and campaign manager will have an opportunity to speak before assembly on June 2.

To be included on the ballot in the coming election will be candidates for yell leaders for the next season. It is not necessary to take out petitions for the yell leaders because students will nominate candidates on the basis of tryouts to be held June 2.

National Forum Leader Added To Faculty

Dr. John Brown Mason, nationally known forum leader, has accepted a teaching position with the local college beginning in September, it was revealed this week by Director D. K. Hammond, following action taken by the Board of Education.

Because a large number of students are required to take orientation and social science an additional instructor was needed, Mr. Hammond said.

Will Teach Orientation

Dr. Mason will teach orientation and United States and European economic history. His duties will also include the handling and recording of the aptitude and other tests given to students. He will also act as adviser to students.

Dr. Mason, who obtained his degree in philosophy at the University of Wisconsin, prefers teaching in a junior college rather than in a university because he feels that he can do more there, Mr. Hammond said.

English Lecturer Speaks Monday

Brother Leo, English lecturer and Santa Clara university faculty member, will be the speaker of the second Ebell cooperative lecture, Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Ebell clubhouse. Associated Students who wish to attend the lecture will be excused from classes.

Although Brother Leo's official position is that of an English instructor he spends most of his time giving lectures, according to Director D. K. Hammond. During the past few years Brother Leo has appeared at leading universities and women's clubs throughout the nation.

Only Associated Students will be allowed to attend due to the shortage of seats.

State University Director Here

Merton A. Hill, director of admissions at the University of California, will be at junior college Wednesday, May 26, to interview prospective students for admission to either University of California or U. C. L. A.

Hill will interview the students in the Women's Lounge at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Mr. Hammond stated today.

There are now 40 former Santa Ana Junior college students at Berkeley. Hill is a graduate of the Santa Ana high school, and resides during the summers at Laguna Beach.

Expect 164 Will Graduate In June

Although the list is only tentative, 164 sophomores are expected to graduate from jaysee next month, Miss Mabel G. Whiting, registrar, said today.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, June 13, and commencement will be held Thursday, June 17, according to Director Hammond.

Excepting Decoration day, May 31, when the schools are closed, and examination week, there are only 14 actual school days remaining in the year. Examinations begin June 11 and continue through June 17.

Students Attend Press Conclave

Santa Ana Junior college will be represented by Bob Swanson and Herb Gulick at the annual Southern California Press Association convention to be held at Glendale Junior college May 22.

They will enter a writers tournament which will be given to determine the best all around writer attending the convention. This contest will cover all three fields of newspaper writing: editorial, feature, and news.

Walter B. Clausen, head of the Los Angeles division of the Associated Press, will be the main speaker.

Krutz, Belcher Are Cast In Leading Roles

Having secured some of the original costumes used in the film version of the opera, final preparations are being made for tonight's presentation of "Naughty Marietta" in the high school auditorium by the combined music departments of the college.

The program will begin at 8 o'clock, Miss Myrtle A. Martin, director of the production, announced.

Story of French
"Naughty Marietta" is a story of the French colonization in America. The opera, written by Victor Herbert, is familiar to Santa Anans because the motion picture version appeared at local theaters recently.

Both Marijane Belcher and Reuben Krutz who play the leading roles and some members of the chorus will wear costumes used in the motion picture version.

Those completing the cast are Onie Sanders and Agnes Brady who play the comedy roles, and Tom Trawick, Milton Yarnell, James Haarstad, Gordon Bishop, Wilbur Marsters, Jeanette Bodman, Lynwood Young, Nina June Robertson, Frances Basset, and Rae Langley.

Matinee Yesterday
Those in charge of the production are Miss Martin, director; Alan A. Revill, orchestra; Miss Zena Leck, dances; Calvin C. Flint, publicity and finance; Miss Frances Egge, costumes; and Wallace Grigg, stage settings; and Paul Veley, drama.

The student management includes Ray Foster, manager; Leo Snedaker, tickets; and Preston Piper, properties.

A special matinee performance was presented yesterday afternoon for students.

Admission is 25 cents for Associated Students and 50 cents for outsiders.

Summer Session To Open On June 21

Selection of the faculty for the annual jaysee summer session was being completed here today by H. O. Russell, dean of the summer school. Regular junior college and Santa Ana High school instructors will comprise the faculty.

Mr. Russell has made a tentative list of teachers. The final list will not be completed until the acceptance of several instructors is given, he said.

Forty-nine high school and college courses are being offered this summer. Courses in the commerce, mathematics, physical education, science, social science, English, and language departments are included in the curriculum.

Registration is set for Friday and Saturday, June 18 and 19 in college hall. A small registration and tuition fee is being charged. Fees are charged according to the number of units undertaken.

Annual Spring Sport Dance At Rio Hondo Club Next Friday

Featuring Tommy Moreland and his 11 piece orchestra, the annual Spring Sport dance is to be held next Friday night at the Rio Hondo Country club near Downey.

Sponsored by Los Gauchos, the dance will include entertainment by the Moav women's trio, and the "Phantom" singer of Wednesday's assembly. The true identity of the mystery singer will also be revealed.

According to Charles McIntyre, Los Gauchos president, the dance will be the best that the club has yet produced.

"We are holding the dance in an entirely new place and I believe that the place, as well as the new orchestra, will make a big hit with all those attending," he stated today.

Dancing will begin at nine o'clock and will continue 'till 12. Tickets, which can be purchased now from any Los Gauchos member, are priced as follows: alumni, and Associated Students, 50 cents; non-associated students, 75 cents; and outsiders, $1.

Gets Honors At Annapolis

Kenneth Patrick, former jaysee student, was this year given one of the three scholarship awards in his class at the United States Naval academy at Annapolis. It was learned today. He received the United States Line prize for ranking highest in the department of language at Annapolis. Following his graduation in June, Patrick will join the Pacific fleet as an ensign on the U. S. S. Arizona.

Patrick, after his graduation from Huntington Beach high school where he held important offices, attended Santa Ana Junior college for one year as preparation for the competitive examination in which he won his appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Patrick, his parents, will leave soon to attend his graduation.

Dons Meet 10 Teams In 1937 Grid Schedule

Printed here today is Santa Ana's grid schedule for 1937. Ten games have been scheduled by Coach Bill Cook, six league and four practice tilts. Five of the contests will be played under the Santa Ana Municipal bowl arcs. Here it is:

Sept. 17—Pasadena J. C. at Santa Ana.
Sept. 24—Stanford Frosh at Palo Alto.
Oct. 1—Santa Monica J. C. at Santa Ana.
Oct. 8—Chaffey J. C. at Ontario.
Oct. 15—San Bernardino J. C. at San Bernardino.
Oct. 22—San Diego State Frosh (Tent.) at Santa Ana.
Oct. 29—Pomona J. C. at Pomona.
Nov. 5—Riverside J. C. at Santa Ana.
Nov. 11—Citrus J. C. at Santa Ana.
Nov. 25—Fullerton J. C. at Santa Ana.

PROSPECTS FOR BASEBALL GOOD

Diamond prospects for the coming season have that certain "rosy" look for Coach Blanch Beatty. The reason—only two of the varsity nine are graduating this June.

"Fearless" Arnold Fickle, sterling southpaw, and lanky Fred Erdhaus, outfielder and reserve pitcher, are the duo of departing baseball greats.

On the other hand, no less than nine of this year's team will return next year and with any kind of luck the Dons should be right up at the top of the percentages fighting for the title.

Vern Rutledge, Bob Wilde, Erwin Youel and Hal Jessee are returning infielders. Art Nieblas, Gordon West, Winfield Mackay and Bob King are outfielders who will be back.

Duane Teel will be back in the catching spot, but the question before the house appears to be who is going to be on the pitcher's mound. A year should provide Coach Beatty with some sort of hurling prospects.

And that's all the boys need!

Haxton Points For Swim Crown In '38

Encouraged by jaysee's most successful swimming season, prospects for a championship team next year were boosted today by Coach Jess Haxton, swimming mentor.

"Next year Santa Ana should have the best team it has ever had," said Coach Haxton. "We finished second in the conference this year with a small team including only three lettermen. With more veterans returning next season, Fullerton will have a harder fight to retain the championship."

Returning lettermen from this year's team will include Drennan Ahern, Melvin Hill, Bob Prescott, Barney Spicer, Kenneth Oliphant, and Roy Seaman. The two year lettermen, Captain Dave Phoenix, Walker Davis, and George Bissett, will be ineligible for competition.

In addition to the lettermen, four divers are expected to report—Bob Clark, Alex Bancroft, Les Huhn, and Leo Crawford.

Improvements made by the swimmers this season indicate that next year's team may have a chance of taking the Southern California championship from the Yellow-jackets, according to Coach Haxton.

"The county high school swim stars who have been lined up for jaysee next fall to fill the vacancies made by the graduating veterans will greatly strengthen the team," Haxton concluded.

Taking second place to Fullerton in the new Southern California junior college swimming conference, Santa Ana suffered only one defeat in conference competition. The Dons won victories from Glendale 59-13, Los Angeles 38-37, Chaffey 65-9, Compton 59-14, and Pasadena 38-35, and were vanquished only by Fullerton, 65-9. In jaysee's sole non-conference meet, held after the conclusion of the league season, a depleted Santa Ana team lost to Occidental college 42-21.

Graduation Hurts Cinder Squad

Jaysee track and field ranks for next year's competition will be sadly depleted if the toll of Don athletes after graduation exercises mean anything. Coach Bill Cook will lose one half (or 10 out of 21) of his star lettermen this June.

The loss of Capt. Bill Greschner, stellar all-around performer, will be felt heavily as will the departure of Ray Cokeley, heavy point-gatherer.

Bob Reif, hurdler; George Griffith, jumper; and Bob Clark, javelin heaver, are other monogram-winners whose absence will be felt. Frank Guthrie, hurdler; Dave Clark and Ines Granados, distances; Harry Stanley, javelin, and Joe Kobayashi, sprints, are other point getters who will be missed.

Heading the list of returning lettermen will be Blas Mercurio, high-jumper. Elson Gaeb and Les Huhn will also be back to strengthen the Dons in this event.

Erwin Youel will return next year for his specialty in the pole-vault as will Harry Griffith, another vaulter. In the broadjump, Willard Luton is slated to return for another year of labor.

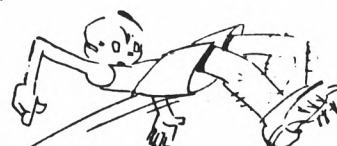

Quartermilers back will be Tommy Sullivan, who doubles in the hurdles; Harry Miles, also a sprinter, and Walt Opp, who runs the 880. Dick Tauber will return as a discus and javelin star.

Football Team Has Promise Despite Poor Spring Showing

Veteran Recalls Sports Of Yore

By HAL POTTORF

Just a feeble shot-put from Santa Ana's Junior college campus where the present-day athletes prowl, lives an old man who has seen the sports parade pass for 52 years. C. W. Raney still follows sports activities as enthusiastically as ever. He got his start as a sprinter and trainer back in the days when they were run on a dirt horse race track.

He trained the famed Tom Morris who held the 100 yard dash record for 35 years until tied by Charlie Paddock. He won the world's championship at the Chicago World's fair in 1893. The following times made by Morris will satisfy you that he was a runner: 50 yards run in :05 flat (repeatedly); 75 yards in :07 flat; 100 yards in :09 3-5 (repeatedly); :09 1-2 (twice); and 150 yards in :14 flat.

Mr. Raney has saved records and clippings of all the major sporting events in the last 50 years. He attends all of the Don athletic contests, yet believes that a great many of the youngsters of today are being burned out in track by the coaches before they are mature. A picture hangs in his room of Morris and himself in their track clothes sporting the handle bar mustaches of that age.

Watching the track meets and other athletic events still bring a thrill to Mr. Raney.

Coach Bill Cook today looked toward the 1937 football season quite hopefully, following the close of a successful spring grid campaign.

Although dropping both practice tilts during the current workout, the first to Pasadena J. C. and the second to Caltech Varsity, the Don mentor felt that time was well spent, since glaring weaknesses in several positions were revealed. The ends and the center post, he mentioned, will require reinforcements.

Coach Cook was much impressed by the style of play of several high school seniors who plan to enroll here next fall. Among those mentioned were Jack Jenkins and Stan Johnson, fullback and tackle respectively, from Huntington Beach; Lynn Montgomery, end; Jack Lentz, center; Bob Clark, guard; Bill McNeil and Gil Nehrig, tackles; and Larry Timken, hard plunging back, are all from Orange. Gene Holderman and Bill Nelson, tackle and quarterback respectively, hail from Tustin, while Jerry Nesmith, center, and Lloyd Fitzpatrick, guard are from Anaheim.

Returning lettermen who enrolled in spring practice this year included Mac Beall, fullback; Dan Boyd, (who will leave his center position for the running guard post next year); Joe Crawford, guard; Bob Faul, end and tackle; Chuck Mueller, halfback; Dave Phoenix, halfback; "Rusty" Roquet, tackle; Co-capt. Ed Stanley, halfback; Bill Semnacher, end; Carl Lehnhardt, halfback; Blas Mercurio, quarterback; Co-capt. Erwin Youel, end, and Dick Tauber, tackle.

Aside from these men, there are 23 more players from jaysee and four from Santa Ana high school out for the sport.

A Successful Fiesta

Ed Ainsworth, state editor of the Los Angeles Times, writes in his column of May 19 that he "Just received a copy of El Don from the Santa Ana Junior college's annual Fiesta, which is the most authentic amateur Spanish festivity put on in this part of the country."

Thus the efforts of Thomas H. Glenn and the Fiesta committee, which labored long and diligently that the Fiesta would be successful, have borne fruit in this state-wide recognition by the Times columnist.

Not only did the community and the old timers living in the city appreciate the Fiesta, but the business men of the city expressed the view that the parade was the finest ever presented.

The Fiesta grows bigger and better every year. And it is because of the hard work of those in charge such as Charles McIntyre, general chairman, and Mr. Glenn and the Fiesta committee that it was even larger this year than before. Not only did the clubs and student body in general respond as they never have before, but the community itself turned out en masse for the parade which was the highlight of the celebration.

Today the Fiesta is not just a junior college activity. It is a city and county-wide celebration, and, as Mr. Ainsworth puts it, is "the most authentic amateur Spanish festivity put on in this part of the country." That is why it is given recognition all over Southern California.

To the city officials, and to the merchants who co-operated in making last Friday a most enjoyable and successful day, go the thanks of the entire student body.

Employment Bureau

One of the most valuable services that the college has performed in the interest of its graduates is the establishment of the employment bureau under the direction of George B. Holmes.

The fact that the bureau has already secured positions for local students in various Orange county firms indicates that there is hope for the college student in this uncertain world of reality where unemployment is the chief bugaboo.

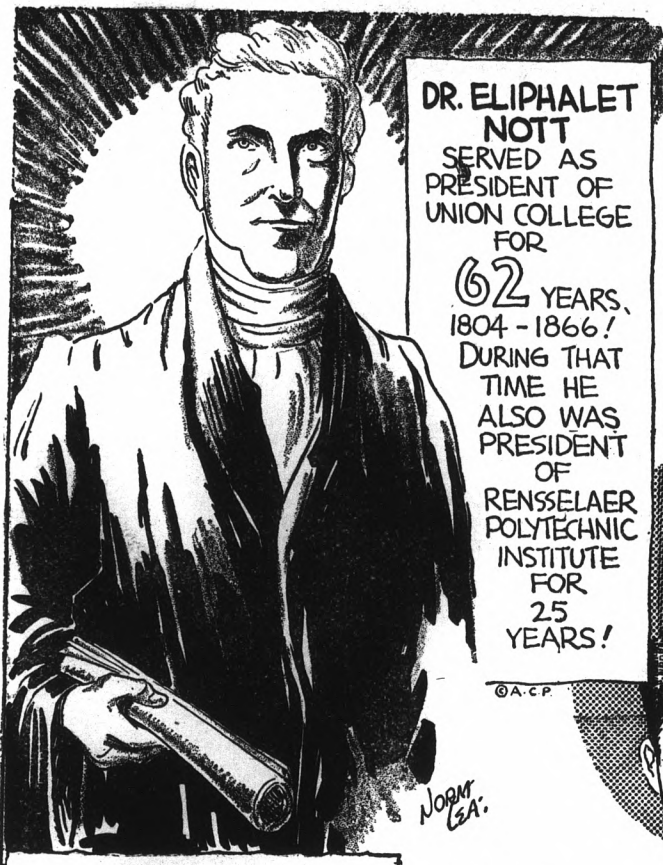

The success of the employment bureau to date shows that it is possible to combine instruction in cultural matters with instruction in practical courses, such as business training which is proving valuable in securing positions at the present time.

By teaching a student the fundamental facts of the universe he lives in, to acquaint him with his environment, is only half of the task of the college. After he is trained to take his place in the world of industry and practical living, the college must help the student to find a place where he can use his abilities and training to the best advantage.

Nothing is sadder than the picture of the man who is well trained but cannot find a position which calls forth the best in him, and who has to accept a job far below his talents.

The placement bureau is definite and convincing proof that the junior college is doing its best not only to prepare the student for life, but is helping the student to find a niche in the practical world of affairs.

A Boarding House Madonna

A TRIBUTE TO MOM RANEY

By Hal Pottorf

"One meat and coffee black," calls a voice with a German accent to her husband in the kitchen as we assemble at "Mom" Raney's boarding house. Mom is more than just a hearty personality, she is an institution. A very much needed institution for college students away from home or without access to good food at a minimum price.

There is only one rule to the game—back off one foot from the table and when your stomach expands to hit the table you're through. As the motly crowd assembles banter and good natured razzing runs high and would prove fatal to most people, but Mom likes boys, having raised one of her own, and her wit is only excelled by a large and generous heart.

Feeding a hungry boy all he can eat for a very reasonable price would soon make one realize that her motive is not entirely mercenary. She hasn't enough rooms to put them all up, but at dinner time they swarm from everywhere like bees around honey. Her extension of credit would turn a banker's head grey from worry for nothing is too good for "her boys". But woe to the fellow who betrays this trust, because she is no sissy.

Food is served in large serving dishes and we help ourselves from the bountiful repast. Some of the more finicky get off their feed sometimes and require a little nursing with specially prepared food. The fellows bring the girl friends along and Mom proves her versatility by winning their favor also.

Even without Mom, the dinner, family atmosphere, and economy would be a pleasure, but with her it is a three ring circus, mother by proxy, and fellow sportsman.

Her years have added a store of knowledge to back up her rapid fire comments on all discussions and are classics of wisdom veiled behind a devastating humor. She runs an informal employment agency for her boys on the side. It is no wonder she is indispensable and loved by those who know her.

Let's Be Silly

By Jack Gardner

What is your favorite indoor sport?

Ping-pong, bridge, monopoly, taffy-pulling—it doesn't really matter, but there are some dizzy ones throughout the nation.

Down at the University of Florida, a recent poll showed that students were decidedly partial towards palm reading as their parlor pastime.

In the middle west it's spelling bees, corn-husking bees, quilting bees—in fact they are ready to put Jack Benny's bee on a 13 weeks contract.

The craze in old New York is the well known game, the "hot foot".

A new sensation this season seems to be the "who am I" game. Well, if they ever find out who I am, I'll have plenty of time to invent new indoor sports from my padded cell in Norwalk.

We were sorry to learn it and you probably didn't know it, but Benjamin McKenna, who suggested to Amos 'n' Andy that they team up as black-face comedians, died a few days ago. It was he, greatly, who was responsible for the team's early success, which has continued for seven years. A 'n' A harmonized to the accompaniment of a uke before McKenna suggested that they adopt burnt-cork characters. They got their starts in Chicago.
